Paula:

My apologies for not getting back to you about this meeting. I have been preparing for my USGS fieldwork for this summer, and I got locked out of remote EPA mail because of Heartbleed password change.

I am here today, before heading out into the field for a couple of weeks. Let me know if you would still like to chat.

Andrew – I am setting up a meeting next week between EPA & BLM to discuss possible cleanup goals for the Upper Animas. No doubt the issue of background will come up and I was wondering if you might be available to participate in the meeting. The meeting is currently scheduled for Tuesday, May 13 from 9:30 -11:00 am and will be here at EPA.

Thanks.
